

Feeling the pressure of being “sandwiched” between generations?

Do you worry about who will raise your children if something happens to you?

Do you worry about who will manage your affairs and assist your family in the event of illness or accident?

Who will run your business if you are unable?

Do you have children from a prior marriage?

Are you caring for aging family members?

Will those you wish to inherit from you do so as easily as possible?

BM BRADY & MARSHAK, LLP
ATTORNEYS AT LAW
Estate Planning, Elder Law,
Intergenerational Planning

Attorney Advertisement